1984-85 was a rebuilding year for Meadowdale football. Finishing third in the city, our mighty men on the field proved to be tough against their opponents. Their hard work, practice, and dedication shoed through in a fine season under the able direction of head coach Mr. Masters, defensive coordinator Mr. Granson, running-back coach Mr. Pollard, and line coaches Mr. Tarpley and Mr. Householder.

All-city selections were snagged by Bryan Carter, Kelly Howard, and Kenny Coleman, who also caught all-area honors.

Kenny Coleman was honored as Best Meadowdale Defensive Player and Most Valuable Player. Brian Carter was honored as Best Meadowdale Offensive Player. Rob Yahle, a tough and dedicated player, received a Line Award.

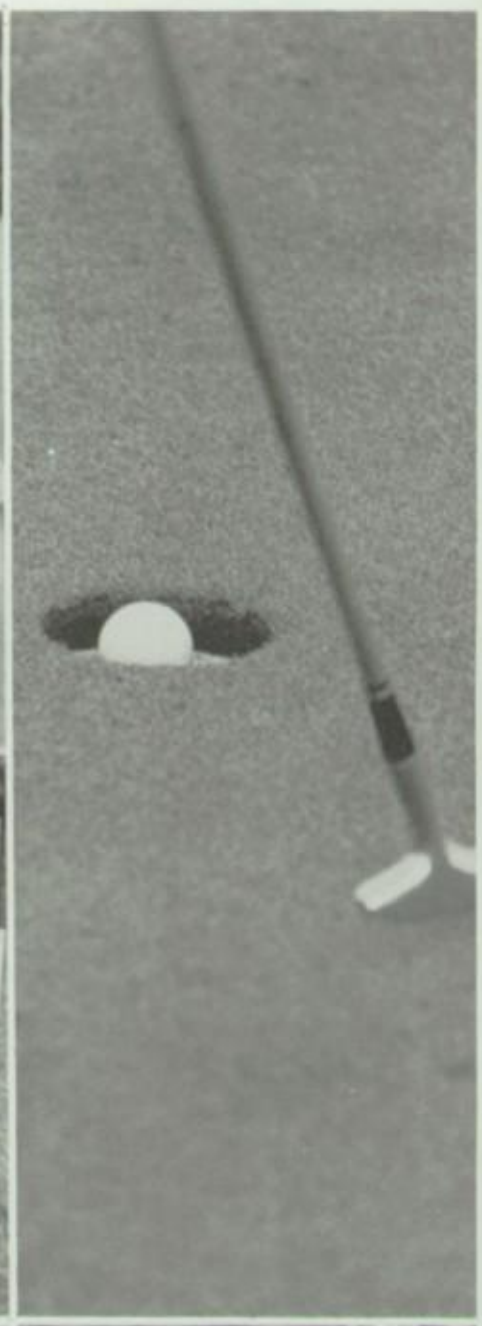
Both girls basketball teams came through this year's season successfully. The girls worked well together as organized teams, and performed their agile moves on the court with precision. Their hard work and dedication to the sport made this season a great one for both the spectators and the players.



At right, team members Tim Marcum, David Fryman, and David Dygert on the green.

Golf is a sport that requires accuracy, concentration, and practice. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Boal, our golf team had a fine season, meeting teams from all over the area.

Coach Paul Gates, truly an expert in the field of tennis, was inducted into the Dayton Amateur Tennis Hall of Fame this year. In 1984, he was the American Tennis Association's National "45-and-over" Doubles Champion.

The girls' tennis team led by Coach Gates, finished the season with a 6-5 record, winning the City League championship. They were undefeated in league matches. The doubles team of April Nugent and Joyce Fried advanced the quarterfinals of the sectional tournament before losing to astrong Alter team.

The Meadowdale Varsity Volleyball Team, led by Head Coach Mrs. Moxley, had a very successful season this year, finishing in a tie for first place in the City League. All-City honors went to Angie Vaughn for first team, Lolita Jones for second team, and Honorable Mention to Lisa Sanders and Mia Wade. This year's Lady Lions proved themselves to be tough against all area teams.

Cross Country

Derwin Hunt, Diane Hall, Coach Cox, Chryssa Nicholas, Raynard Hunt.

The members of this year's cross country team struggled through a tough schedule and came out with several victories. Coach Jack Cox was very pleased with the season.

In the city meet, the Lions were unable to field a full team, but both Raynard Hunt and Derwin Hunt gave very fine showings. Diane Hall finished her best season ever with a sixth place in the city and thirty-fifth place at the sectional meet, which qualified her for the district meet. She will return next year as a senior for another great season.

Chryssa Nicholas topped off her senior year with a first place finish at the city meet, first place honors in the sectionals, and second place in the state. She leaves Meadowdale as the two-time sectional champion and the four-time city champ, as well as the city cross-country record holder.

Athlete of the Week

Lion grappler wins 3rd City title

By RON JACKSON
Daily News Special Writer

Jerry Johnson could be strutting this week, brimming with confidence after becoming one of the few three-time champions in the history of the City high school wrestling tournament.

The Meadowdale senior isn't shooting his mouth off, however. He's keeping his enthusiasm in check. Sure, he's glad he won the 185-pound title at the recent City meet at Wilbur Wright Intermediate Magnet, but he's got bigger things in mind.

"That's his nature," said the Lions' first-year coach, Randy Sells. "Jerry's an easygoing guy, quick to laugh, but not outspoken. He just does his job quietly."

HE HAS BEEN doing it pretty consistently over three years, ringing up a 43-17 record. In the City tournament, he hammered John Shellenberger of Colonel White, pinning him at 4:24 and raising his record to 13-4. Shellenberger happens to be a close friend of Johnson.

"It's nice to win the City again, but now I'm concentrating on the districts and regionals," said the son of Richard and Wanda Johnson of 2316 Emerson Ave. in Dayton. "Conditioning has been one of my faults this season so I'm trying to get myself in the best of shape so I can go six strong minutes in the district.

"There's a good chance the guys I lost to will pop up at district, so I want to be ready this time and change the outcome," he continued. "They include Tim Baker of Trotwood-Madison and (Rusty) Bowermaster of Franklin."

Because of the lack of a good workout partner, Johnson has to knock heads with coach Sells.

"I TRY TO be competitive with him," the first-year coach said with a laugh. "But I'm usually dead after he beats on me for a few minutes. I don't last long against him. He's got a lot of strength and uses muscle moves effectively. A lot of his strength is a carryover from his football experience."

Johnson was a two-year starter for the Lions football team and a solid contributor at defensive tackle and offensive guard. He earned second-team All-City honors last fall.

"But wrestling is my favorite sport," said Johnson, who plans to attend Ohio State University and possibly wrestle. "My older brother (Tony) got me into the sport when I was a seventh-grader. We would always sneak down into the basement at night after our parents had gone to bed. He would get me into a guillotine (a wrestling hold), and work me over pretty good.

"I LIKE the individual, one-on-one aspect of the sport," he added. "No matter what happens, you only blame yourself."

Johnson hasn't had to blame himself for many mistakes this season.

Boys Tennis

The 1985 Boys Tennis, coached by our resident tennis champ, Mr. Paul Gates, competed fiercely against teams from many other area schools during their season. This year the team was comprised of several relatively inexperienced, but enthusiastic players who worked very hard at displaying traditional Lion spirit and sportsmanship.

Our players had practice every day after school, and they willingly devoted many hours to learning new techniques and perfecting old ones. Most members of the team were sophomores and juniors, and so hopefully they will be back for an even more promising and successful season next year.

Muse Machine

The Muse Machine meets a cultural need in the Greater Dayton Area. It provides programs and performances that facilitate learning about theatre, music, opera, dance, and the visual arts. These programs are taken into the school by small groups of performing professionals from Dayton's major Performing Arts organizations.

The Muse Machine also provides out-of-school programs with The Victory Theatre, The Dayton Philharmonic, The Dayton Opera, The Dayton Contemporary Dance Company, and The Dayton Art Institute.

Student Government plays an important role in Spirit Week, Homecoming activities, and the canned food drive. This year, under the advisorship of Mrs. Snellings, the Meadowdale Student Government challenged other city high schools to see which school could bring inthe most canned goods. The challenge ran from Dec. 3rd through Dec. 7th. Meadowdale students did a terrific job, but were slightly edged out by Col. White. It was all for a worthwhile cause, however, the food collected was turned over to the Hunger Coalition. As part of the canned food drive, the class at Meadowdale bringing in the most canned goods was given points for Spirit Week.

"Voices from the High School"

The 1984-85 school year saw Meadowdale with its first theatrical presentation in four years. Speech and drama teacher, Mr. Clawson, directed eight student actos intheir version of the play "Voices from the High School".

The actors, including Melissa Jeffries, Charles Cole, Mark Ayles, Carmelia Osley, Lincoln Brown, Leshawn Jackson, Lawanda Hurd, and Annette Hopkins, invested many hours of hard work and practice after school to give a superb performance.

The play, dealig with the emotions, problems, triumphs, and sorrows of teenage high school students, was performed on March 9 for in-school Muse Machine members, and for parents and friends on March 17.

Air Force Band

This year Meadowdale was once again treated to a special visit and concert by the Air Force Band. The musicians entertained the staff and students with an outstanding, exciting, and very lively show, filled with talent that had the audience begging for more.

Turnabout Dance

Turnabout Dance • Turnabout Dance

Festival of Excellence

On May 9, Meadowdale played host to a large group of our area's senior citizens. The day began with a welcome from Mrs. Booker and entertainment by the Meadowdale Bane, drama group, choir, J.R.O.T.C. drill team, and Mezmerix. The choir asked our visitors, in a song, to "Come Spend This Day with Me". Our guests then toured the building, and afterwards were treated to a delicious lunch prepared by Mrs. Woods and her expert kitchen staff. The entire day was planned and hosted by Ms. Crum's sociology classes, who did a terrific job and exemplified our theme: "Excellence is sharing and caring with our community."

Haunted House

The Northmont Jaycees' Haunted House was one of the fund-raising projects of the Class of '85. Some of our seniors turned themselves into monsters and creatures in order to terrify visitors touring the Haunted House. It was lots of fun for those participating, and the class of '85 received a check and an attractive plaque.

Band Awards Banquet

The Band Awards Banquet was exciting and rewarding for our Marching Band, Lionettes, and Mezmerix squads. Awards were presented in such catagories as best musician, most improved musician, most improved Lionette, and best Mezmerix prop handler. Two seniors, Eric Edwards and Derek Bowerns, presented their own playful version of band awards which included most injured and mouth of the year. The evening was full of happiness, laughter, awards, and love. A special "Thank You Much" Award was presented to Mrs. Booker from the band. Mrs. Skinner, Lionette/Mezmerix advisor, was given a special farewell gift and good luck from the Lionette and Mezmerix members.

Powder Puff Football

In November, the Junior and Senior ladies took to the gridiron for their annual powder puff match. For the second year in a row, the ladies of '85 dominated all the action, with the Seniors trouncing the Juniors 36-12.

Although the weather was cold and gloomy, the heat on the field was fierce.

The Juniors played well, but they were no match for the Seniors. Stars of the game included Lori Trevellyan, Cherise "Cuffy" Hairston, "Killer" Kelli Fletcher, and Dee Dee Northcutt. Coach for the Class of '85 was Rob Yahle.

Irv Eatman Day

Once again we were visited by a very special and popular graduate of Meadowdale, Mr. Irv Eatman, of the Philadelphia Eagles.

The day began with a special assembly in which Irv talked with our students about the importance of athletics as academics. His words inspired many. While here, Irv presented Mead owdale with a continuing scholarship to be awarded in his name to one of our students each year.

State Music Competition

On April 19th and 20th, Meadowdale was host to twenty-three bands and nineteen choirs from Southwest Ohio. The Competition, under tha auspices of the Ohio Music Education Association, was fierce and very demanding. Top judges from around the state evaluated the various musical groups participating, and Meadowdale's band having given a splendid performance, received a very high rating.

Homecoming Dance

The 1984 Homecoming Dance, sponsored by Student Government, was a great success due to the support of the Meadowdale student body and staff.

The Homecoming Court: Rhonda Henderson and Benny Redmond (Junior Attendants), Chryssa Nicholas and Brian Carter (Senior Attendants), April Walker and Denny Long (Queen and King), and Kellie Howard and George Clay (Sophomore Attendants).

Elections were held in November, and Meadowdale being an official polling place, the voting booths were once again set up in our school lobby. Mr. Jacob Middlesworth, one of our Seniors who lives near the school, exercised his right to vote during his lunch time, as did one of our former students, Mr. Tom Might, who graduated in 1982.

NOTICE
Ohio Law prohibits any person from voting or attempting to vote more than once at the same election. Violators shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $1000 or imprisonment not less than one nor more than five years or both.

March saw the new ramp in the Student Activity Room ready for use by our handicapable students. The L-shaped carpeted ramp was constructed to allow our handicapables access to the room, especially during the lunch hour. With the polite, positive persistence of Mr. Kenny Walker, one of our handicapables, and the invaluable assistance of Mrs. Booker, the red tape was cut and the job was finished.

One very cold morning this past winter, a cardboard box was found on the front doorstep of the school. Inside that box were two small kittens, feeling very lonely, cold, and hungry. Our two tiny feline friends were welcomed with open arms, some food, and a big bowl of warm milk. In no time at all, good home were found for these two abandoned kittens.

Prom

The Junior-Senior Prom was held this year at the Greek Orthodox Memorial Center on May 10th. The Junior Class, choosing "One More Night" as the Prom theme, did a terrific job to make this affair something for all to remember fondly, especially the Seniors whose days at Meadowdale were about to come to a close.

Spring Concert

On May 15th, the Meadowdale Music Dept., under Band Director Paul Croom and Choral Director Natalie DeHorn, presented its Spring Concert, entitled "Music for All Ages". The program included the "Sonata for Flute and Concert Band" with Pam Sage playing a difficult 12-minute flute solo; an outstanding vocal rendition of "We Are the World", featuring our own Morris Russell on the piano; and memorable musical tributes to J.S. Bach (His 300th Birthday) and Richard M. Cohan.

This well-attended program was an opportunity for our musically-inclined students to display their many talents before the public.

Spirit Week

Meadowdale really vibrated with spirit during the week of February 4-8. The school was filled with cheers, wacky costumes, colorful posters, decorations, and lots of activities promoting a positive spirit about Meadowdale.

Everybody had fun during the process of each class competing for top honors. And at the end of the week, the jubilant class of '85 had done it! After three years of trying, they had finally won Spirit Week for the first time! The Juniors swept second place, and the Sophomores came in a close third.

All the students, however, regardless of their class standing, had a good time showing that they are proud to be Meadowdale Lions.

Leadership, scholarship, character, and service, the four characteristics necessary for membership in the National Honor Society, were represented in the induction ceremony this spring.

Under the scholarship requirement, students qualify for membership by maintaining a 3.0 average.

Silver 17

The 17th annual student art exhibit was not only a celebration of 17 years of excellence in art at Meadowdale, but also 25 years of excellence in education. "Silver 17" was held April 21st and was well-attended by members of the Meadowdale community.

Meadowdale students can letter in academics

Dayton Journal Herald 5/30/85

Move over all you high school athletes whose sweaters bulge with letters and pins heralding your physical prowess.

Meadowdale High School students with academic prowess will be flaunting their letters, too. And their academic letters may be the first ever awarded in the Dayton public high schools.

The students, 150 who maintained grade-point averages throughout the school year of at least 3.0 — a "B" average — were given a black-and-gold cloth "M" at a banquet Wednesday night at Meadowdale. The event and the honors were sponsored by the Inland Division of General Motors in Dayton, which is linked with the school in the district's Partners in Education project.

THE IDEA behind the awards is to show academic accomplishments are just as important as those on a football field or basketball court, said Joan Pettiford, Dayton school board member and administrator of equal employment opportunity at Inland.

Following the tradition of athletic letters, students who maintain a 3.0 or better grade-point average for two or three years in a row will receive pins, shaped like miniature scrolls, to place on their letters, Pettiford said.

Class Day

The stage was set and the excitement of class day began. Seniors proudly ascended the steps of the stage and were in the spotlight. Recognized were those seniors receiving athletic, secretarial, academic, and music awards and scholarships. This special day was filled with fun, pride, and senior spirit.

After the awards, the traditional skits were presented, the Juniors giving their version of the Seniors, and the Seniors, in turn, giving their version of the teachers. The zany antics in the skits was rewarded by laughter and a-pplause from the audience.

Senior Dinner Dance

The Seniors got toegether at the Imperial House North on June 1st for one of their last class activities — The Senior Dinner Dance. Many of the faculty were present as well. It was an evening of music, dancing, laughter, and happiness, which brought the members of the class closer together.

Senior Boat Trip

On May 18, several members of the Senior Class travelled to the public landing in Cincinnati to board the Mark Twain riverboat for a lazy cruise on the Ohio River. The Seniors relaxed on deck, taking in the sights and scenery, waving to people on shore, munching on snacks and sandwiches, and spending time with each other. Everyone enjoyed their outing on the "Beautiful Ohio".

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate is described as "the marking of the spiritual transition from adolescence to adulthood". This year's Baccalaureate was held on June 2 in the auditorium. It was a thoughtful and reflective ceremony for our Seniors who are entering the world of adulthood.

Commencement

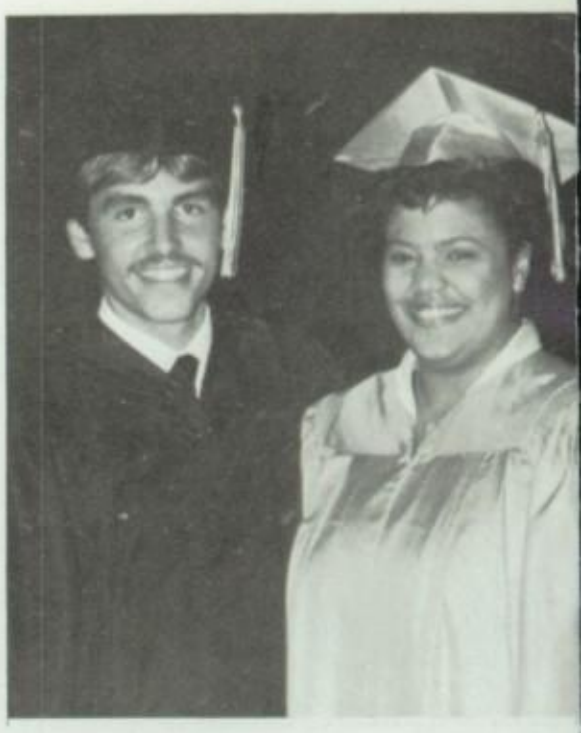
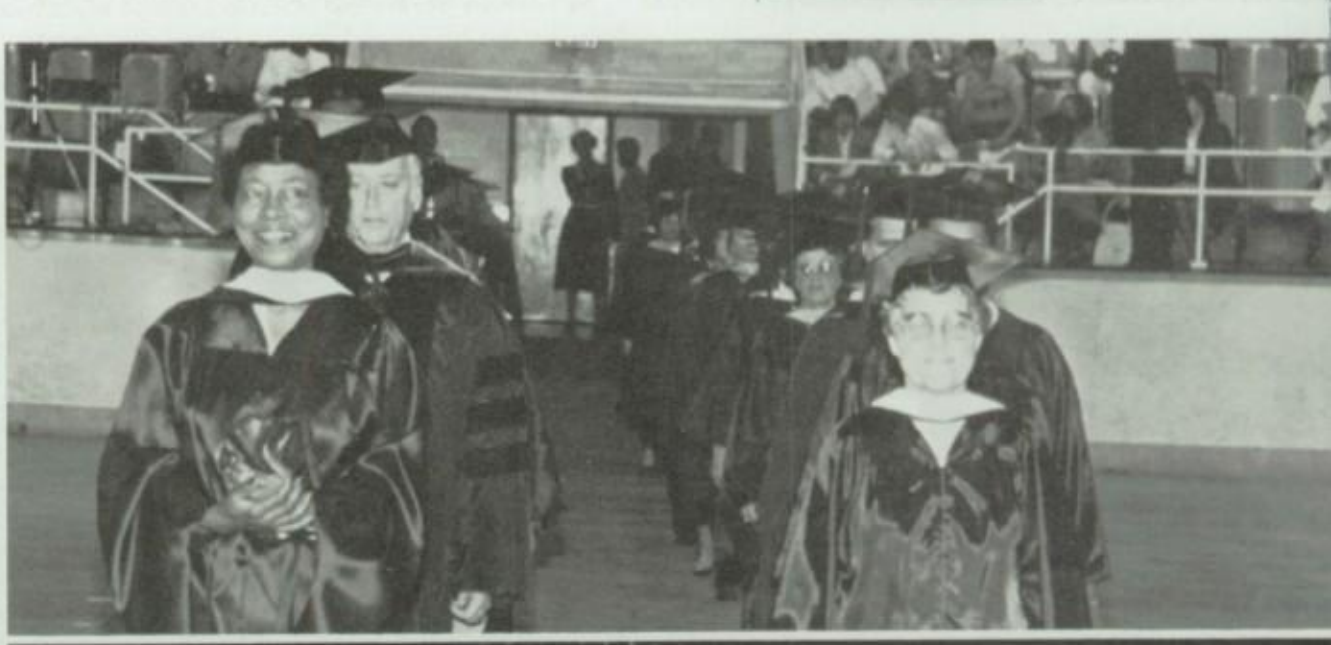
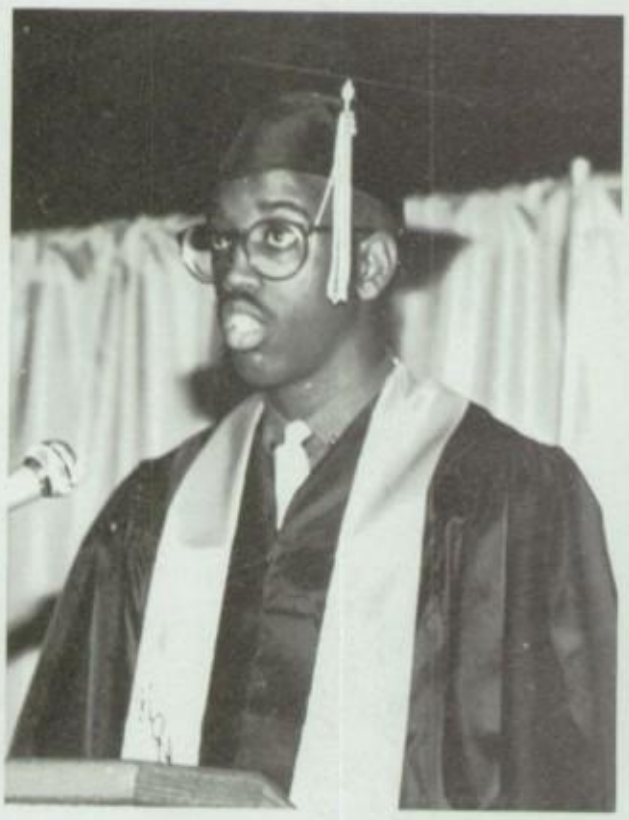
One word can describe the feeling felt by Seniors, faculty, parents, and guests as the Class of '85 joined together for the graduation ceremony. That one word, that one feeling, was pride.

The commencement was held at Hara Arena on Thursday, June 6. Joan A. Pettiford, Board of Education member, and Dr. William Goff, Assistant Superintendent were the Board and Central Office representatives. Major speakers were Mark Hofacker, Leah Gounaris, Chryssa Nicholas, Jenifer Porter, Gary Moore, and Moneque Randolph.







The end of the 1984-85 school year brought with it the sad news that Mrs. Jean Booker was retiring. She had been one very special person to everyone here at Meadowdale, touching each of our lives in a positive and caring way with her leadership, dedication, and endless energy. "Thanks much!" to you, Mrs. Booker, for everything you did for us personally and for Meadowdale High School.

Many thanks to all who helped, in one way or another, in producing this yearbook. There was copy to be written, faces to be identified in the photos, typing and alphabetizing to be done, sundry information to be gathered, ads to be sold, and a host of other detailed tasks to be accomplished. No matter how great or small the task, to all who gave their time, effort, and talent, it was all very much appreciated.

A special note of thanks to the fine staff at Schwabe Studio for their expert work; to Mr. and Mrs. Schwabe for their help and encouragement; to Dennis (above left), for the terrific pictures he took; and to Ruth (above right), for her patience, support, and special assistance "in times of crisis".

Grateful appreciation goes, as well, to Gwen and Terry Hirtzinger, representatives of Taylor Publishing Co., for their helpful direction, expertise, understanding, and moral support; and to the staff at the Enon Educational Center, especially Jeri, for the hours spent computerizing the layouts and typesetting.

My hope is that everyone will enjoy and treasure this book of memories now and in the years to come.

'Little Lionel' of Meadowdale launches himself in rock career

By TOM BEYERLEIN

Lots of teen-agers dream about rock stardom. Morris Russell is doing something about it.

The 16-year-old Meadowdale High School student has signed a contract with a Chicago music agent and publishing firm that is now trying to sell his mellow love songs to a record company.

A soft-spoken youth who previously had sung mostly in churches, Russell got his big break at Christmas when he participated in a talent contest at the Dayton Convention and Exhibition Center.

"MORRIS CAME in fourth, but (talent scout Roger Smith) had him picked out to be No. 1," said Russell's stepfather, Larry Jackson.

Smith, of the Chicago firm of Taylor Smith Inc., called Jackson about two weeks after the talent show. Within days, Taylor Smith was signed as Russell's representative and had publishing rights to seven of his songs.

Later, Warner Bros. Records also expressed an interest in Russell's music, but he had already signed with Taylor Smith.

Russell, of 4512 Genesee Ave. in northwest Dayton, provided Taylor Smith with a tape of him singing his songs and accompanying himself on the electric piano.

Fred Bridges, who manages the Temptations and the Four Tops, arranged music for background instruments, and a tape was made, complete with guitars, bass, drums, strings and a new keyboard part. All that remained was for Russell to appear at a Detroit recording studio to add a new vocal track.

"IT WAS DIFFERENT — I'd never sung in a studio before," Russell said. The finished tape "sounded good — I'd never had my music filled in with all the strings and everything."

Russell, who has been playing piano and writing music since he was 11, said he likes rockers Prince and Michael Jackson, but he doesn't try to emulate them musically. His songs are more closely aligned with the work of Lionel Richie — in fact, some folks called him "Little Lionel" after a performance at Spunky's nightclub.

Russell hopes his new agent is successful in landing a recording deal for him. He plans to return to Detroit soon to make another demo tape, this one containing some uptempo tunes to contrast with his own mellow compositions.

The company is recruiting a small band for him, and there are plans for local public appearances.

MEADOW

How does one express feelings for a very special person who has been the foundation of strength and the cornerstone of perseverance and courage in one's life?

This special person believes in all and never gives up on the hope for a brighter tomorrow. This person is special to one and to many. Her hands have reached out and touched lives silently but also powerfully.

Even though such a person seems too good to be true, she does exist. This is a person who, through the love she feels in her soul for everyone, has always worked and strived for the betterment of others. She has touched some of our lives for three years, some for four years, and some of us for much longer; but the time does not really matter. For this kind of person could influence and make a difference in only a few moments. She walked into our lives, changing and rearranging, shaping and molding us into something better than we were before. She uttered words of wisdom to carry us through difficulties. And even though all did not always listen, the wise message went on. She can best be described as being positive. So positive is she that she is always there with a pat on the back for the victors and with words of encouragement for the losers. No one who tried ever lost in her eyes.

Nothing seems impossible for this matriarch who has touched our lives in so many ways. Through her strength comes our strength; through her goodness comes our goodness. You never realize how good something is until you've lost it. Sometimes the best and greatest things in life go unnoticed. This person may go unnoticed by some, but certainly not by many.

As the doors of this particular time of our lives begin to close slowly behind us, we are left with our memories. One memory shines bright—that of a great lady who faced the challenge of change and took the world by storm and surprise. This is the memory of one special person who guided us down the paths of life and taught us so many lessons by simply being a lady of action. Empty words and shallow desires are not for her. Potent has been her touch on all lives that have crossed her path. She has been the difference for many people.

Mrs. Jean D. Booker, you have been a very special person in our lives, and as you leave your careers in education, symbolically graduating with the Class of 1985, your imprint shall not be easily erased. Impressions of your love and care shall always rest in our hearts.

Facing tomorrow without you will not be easy, but because of you we have learned the courage to confront those tomorrows with our heads held high. To all those who love you, you are that rare and treasured jewel that all admire. We all wish to possess your qualities as a leader and as a human being.

As we leave Meadowdale High School to face the challenges of tomorrow, it is only fitting that you leave with us, leading the way. You're one woman who will never stand alone because you are loved by many.
